No steps have been considered for the forming of a credit here for England, and the feeling is that should one be established it would have to be in excess of $100,000,000 at the rate at which England is now taking goods from this country. For the week ended February 13 exports to England totalled about $6,500,000, while to England and about $6,500,000, while to England and British possessions the total was nearly $9,000,000. At that rate a $100,000,000

There were well founded reports that arrangements had been practically completed for the third shipment of $2,-500,000 from Ottawa to this city, but confirmation could not be secured.

The German dellies which are being received here apparently do not give the prices for the German threes. Cables from London last week reported them as selling in that market at from 53½ to 55, as compared with 72 on July 30, 1914. However, London prices would probably not correspond with the values placed upon hese securities by the Germans.

The decline in exchange sterling has brought copper exporters to the con-sideration of the question of making ales of copper to Europe in dollars The basis has been largely in ste up to this time. It is now figured a drop of 1 cent in the pound sterling is equivalent to a loss of 3 cents per 100 pounds of copper. The result may be, if the decline in sterling continues, either that the price of copper sold abroad on the sterling basis will be raised or that sales will be negotiated on a dellar basis.

It was learned yesterday from New York Ceneral officials that they consider the company has strong grounds for retaining the steamer lines on the Great Lakes. Shakeout in Wheat, Corn and Oats -Exporters Check Decline.

Recently the speculative demand for wheat has been centred chiefly on the July position at Chicago. It was significant that this option was the leader in the break at yesterday's ession. The smashing of prices was not noticeably halted until near the close of the day, when the trade paid more attention to the export demand, which resulted in estimated sales of more than 800,000 bushels.

The European news was disconcerting to the speculative holders. Sensational reports were circulated as to the activity Sterling exchange rallied yesterday nearly two cents over the close on Tuesday.
